CATALOGUE

OF

Coins and Medals,

ANCIENT AND MODERN,

PREPARED BY

JAMES D. BUTLER, LL. D., AND D. S. DURRIE, ESQ.,

FROM THE COLLECTION OF

JAMES L. HILL, Esq.,

LATE MAYOR OF THE CITY, AND PRESIDENT OF THE LATE BANK OF MADISON.

MADISON, WIS.:
M. J. CANTWELL, BOOK AND JOB PRINTER, KING ST., 1874.

INTRODUCTION.

The Numismatic collection herein catalogued was laboriously collected during a score of years by James L. Hill, Esq., late Mayor of the City, and President of the late Bank of Madison, at a cost of several thousand dollars, who enjoyed exceptional advantages on both sides of the Atlantic and endeavored to make the most of them.

His valued collection would never have been offered for sale, but for overwhelming reverses of fortune.

The inscriptions run through well nigh twenty languages, and dates through more than that number of centuries. The number of pieces aggregates about 5,549.

Special attention is invited to the series of American cents, which is almost perfect, and to our Colonial coinage, and to the medals of American Presidents and Generals, to the dollars and corresponding pieces of various nations and dates (29 American and 74 half dollars), to the multitudinous Tokens, public and private, to the Isaac Newton Medal, to the Venetian Medal of 1687, as well as those of foreign potentates, to the "double triangles" of the thirteenth century, to the line of Roman Emperors downward from Augustus, and to the Scandinavian department from the "necessity pieces" weighing more than three pounds apiece to bracteates thin as paper.

The sizes are stated according to the scale of Mionnet.

The catalogue has been prepared by James D. Butler, L. L. D., late of the University of Wisconsin, and D. S. Durrie, Esq., Librarian of the Wisconsin State Historical Society.

Proposals will be received to the first day of October, next, from societies or individuals for the whole or a portion of the same.

The coin and medals are arranged on trays suitably made for the large burglar proof iron safe that contains them, which safe and trays will be sold together with the collection. Sales will be made for cash or draft on eastern cities.

Bids will be received by the undersigned, assignee of the Bank of Madison, in bankruptcy, or may be forwarded to D. S. Durrie.
